

CASE STUDY

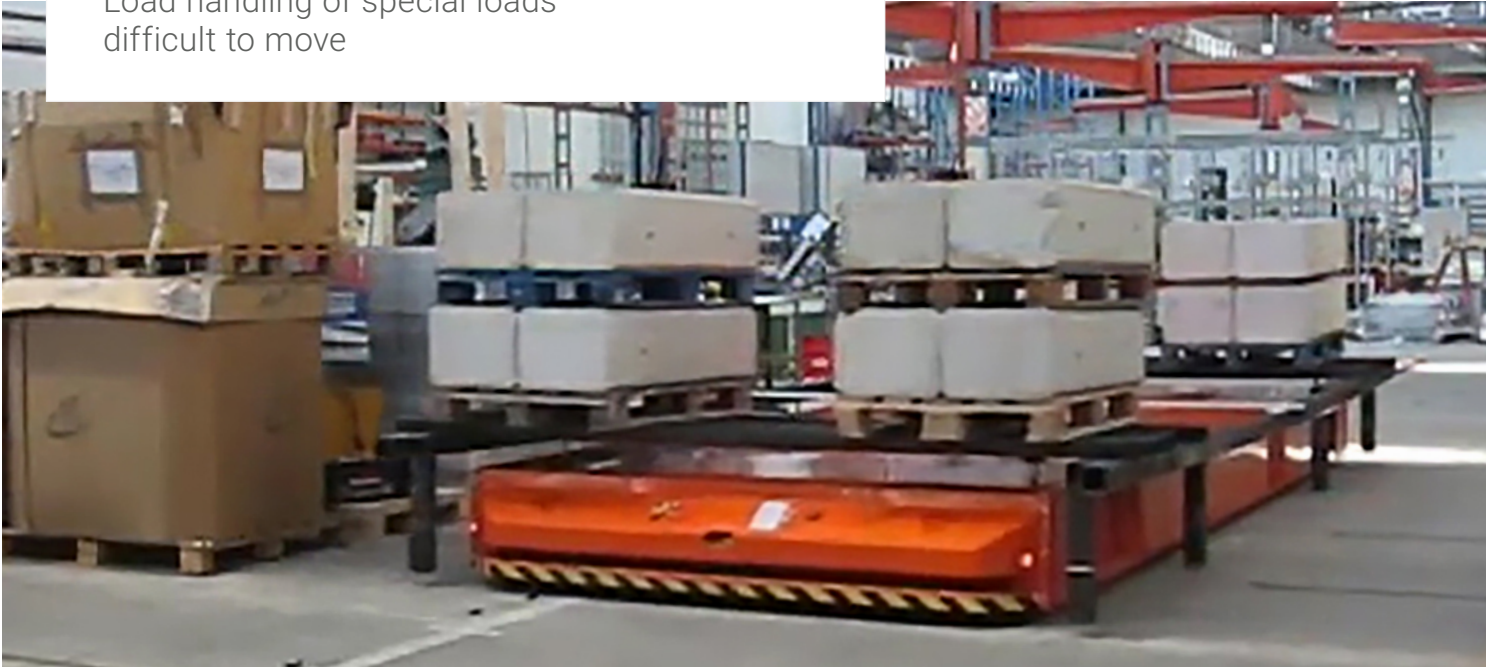

See AGVs
in action

Alestis

Challenge

Load handling of special loads
difficult to move

Automatic transport of components to the painting line

- Installation of an AGV to transport parts up to 10 Tn between production line and painting booth.

Thanks to its safety elements and stopping accuracy, the complete protection of the components during transport is ensured, reducing costs and possible damages.

Load handling of special loads
difficult to move.

